

For Immediate Release – January 16, 2014
Contact: Kevin Brannon: Kevin@brannonco.net

State Representative Drew Springer Endorses Ken Paxton for Texas Attorney General

“We need a fighter to push back against ObamaCare and the federal bureaucrats who threaten our oil and gas industry, agriculture, and our rural way of life.”

(McKinney, Texas) - Texas State Representative Drew Springer today announced his endorsement of Ken Paxton for Attorney General in the March 4th Republican Primary. Springer represents House District 68 which covers parts of north Texas westward and into the Panhandle and includes the counties of Childress, Collingsworth, Cooke, Cottle, Crosby, Dickens, Fisher, Floyd, Garza, Hall, Hardeman, Haskell, Jack, Kent, King, Montague, Motley, Stonewall, Throckmorton, Wheeler, Wilbarger, and Young.

Representative Springer said, “I recognized Ken Paxton’s strong conservative leadership while working with him during my first term. He helped me be effective for my district, and I know he will be an effective Attorney General. The constant threat from the Obama Administration is real, and that’s why we need a man like Ken Paxton to follow Greg Abbott. We need a fighter to push back against ObamaCare and the federal bureaucrats who threaten our oil and gas industry, agriculture, and our rural way of life. With a long, proven record of fighting for our values, Ken Paxton is the man we can count on to get the job done.

On a personal note, Ken Paxton is a strong man of faith with the kind of integrity we need in an Attorney General. Ken and his wife Angela are solid Christian people who share the values of this district and I’m proud to recommend him to the voters of Texas House District 68.”

Senator Paxton said, “In his first term, Drew Springer is already known as an effective conservative who represents his district well. He’s a principled leader, and I’m honored he has decided to endorse my candidacy for Texas Attorney General.”

The son of an Air Force veteran, Republican Texas State Senator Ken Paxton has consistently been recognized as a conservative, stalwart Texas leader with a deep passion and respect for our U.S. Constitution. He is known for his principled and uncompromising devotion to conservative principles – a man who has demonstrated enormous political courage throughout his service to Texas. On August 1, 2013, Senator Paxton announced his candidacy for Attorney General stating, “Washington has a bull’s-eye on Texas, and we need bold leadership to hold the line against our out-of-control federal government as it continually encroaches on our rights and liberties. I have a loud and clear message for Barack Obama: Mr. President, Texans will govern Texas!”

Senator Paxton has been endorsed by the Texas Patriots PAC, Young Conservatives of Texas, Texans for Fiscal Responsibility, Texas Right to Life PAC, Texas Home School Coalition Association, Concerned Women for America Legislative Action Committee, Senator Brian Birdwell and 24 Texas House members, and over 100 Tea Party leaders and activists across Texas. Paxton has also been endorsed by prominent Texas and national conservatives including Penny Nance, President and CEO, Concerned Women for America*; Senator Rick Santorum; Cathie Adams, President, Texas Eagle Forum* and Former Chairman, Republican Party of Texas; Tim Lambert, President, Texas Home School Coalition* and Former Republican National Committeeman for Texas; David Barton, Founder of WallBuilders and former Republican Party of Texas Vice Chair; Ann Hettinger, Former State Director of Concerned Women for America of Texas*; Rick Green, Former Texas State Representative and Host of WallBuilders* Live; Carol Everett, Texas Pro-Life Leader; Founder and CEO of The Heidi Group*; Michelle Smith, State Director of Concerned Women for America of Texas*; and Jonathan Saenz, President, Texas Values*.

###

*organization listed for identification purposes only.